

Great news for Music lovers and holiday makers everywhere!

Paul Claffey Tours are delighted to announce the launch of their music based holidays for 2012 with something for everyone from Sun holidays to brand new exciting adventure called Music Tours of Ireland. Our Philosophy remains unrelenting as it has being for the last 20 years, Paul Claffey Tours is about giving people what they want and bringing them on a magical journey that will provide a treasure trove of memories to last a lifetime.

For more than 20 years Paul Claffey Tours has had the privilege of bringing thousands of holiday makers to destinations all over the world such as Spain, Portugal, Nashville, The Caribbean, South Africa, Cyprus, Thailand and numerous other locations. Our success is based on providing people with the best possible experience; Quality Music based holidays, Comedy, Luxurious accommodation and excellent customer service.

For 2012 we are launching our Music Tours of Ireland, specially formulated music trips showcasing top Irish and U.K performers that will provide you with nonstop exciting Music & Comedy Entertainment from start to finish. Music Tours of Ireland will take us from Mayo to Kerry and from Sligo to Galway featuring such artists as Dominic Kirwan, Mike Denver, Brendan Shine Declan Nerney and lots of other great artists.

Those of you travelling with us to Tralee in Co. Kerry are in for a major treat as we have secured top class tickets for Daniel O'Donnell on his ONLY exclusive Irish dates for 2012 in the I.N.E.C. Killarney. We've chosen the very best deluxe hotels throughout and they assure us they will pull out all the stops to make your stay memorable and it includes 4 nights Bed & Breakfast and an Evening meal.

With our Music tours of Ireland 2012, we are thrilled to make possible the many requests we have had in recent times to have Music Tours in Ireland. During the days there will be music in the afternoon, FREE optional guided tours where you will get to experience authentic Irish culture, its music and its people and see places that will provide you with a treasure trove of memories. Our FREE optional guided tours will take you to some of the most amazing places in Ireland, all carefully planned with experienced tour guides. For the energetic amongst you we have a diverse range of Golf courses to choose from, each one offering a unique experience. We'll take you to the most breathtaking regions to explore everything from the raw natural beauty of Connemara to the heights of Croagh Patrick or from the Dingle Way to the gateway to North West. If you fancy some shopping we'll even organise discounted shopping vouchers from stores in the local towns or if you're looking for some relaxation, our luxurious hotels can provide a wide range of treatments. The choice is yours!

Paul Claffey of Paul Claffey Tours is also the managing and executive director of Mid West Radio and presents his own light entertainment show weekdays from 11am—1pm on the local radio station. Every Monday night Paul will also be anchoring a brand new television show called Ireland West Music Television on sky channel 201 from 22.00—23.00. The show will be repeated every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights at the same time slot. This show will be produced by Mayo based radio station Mid West Radio and will feature some of the very best Current day country music stars and will also have a nostalgia slot on some of Ireland's music legends as well as promoting some great comedy and cultural themes.

Let us take you on an amazing journey to magical locations around Ireland and make 2012 the year to embark on a unique music, fun & cultural holiday break of a lifetime. We look forward to organising your trip by Coach, Ferry or if you wish to travel by plane we can fly you directly into Ireland West Airport Knock and Cork Airport from your regional airport. With Paul Claffey Tours there are no strangers, only friends you have not met yet.

So join us and let the fun begin.
